NINETEEN TWENTY-SEVEN

VOLUME XIII

PUBLISHED BY THE
SENIOR CLASS OF CARY HIGH SCHOOL
CARY, NORTH CAROLINA

ENGRAVED, PRINTED AND BOUND BY EDWARDS & BROUGHTON CO.
RALEIGH, N. C.

Foreword

IN the years to come we shall be more able to understand and appreciate the happiness of our high school days, and in order that the ties of friendship may be more closely drawn, we, the Class of '27, by the loyal support of the Faculty and student body, present this, the 13th volume of the CHSITE.

Dedication

TO our mothers and fathers, whose love, encouragement, ambition, and financial aid have made our high school education possible, we affectionately dedicate this thirteenth volume of the CHSITE.

BESSIE CHRISTINE ALLEN
"Bess"

Cary, North Carolina

"The only way to have a friend, is to be one."

Here's a girl who has won a place in the hearts of all her classmates. She is seldom seen without a smile on her face, and a kind word to say. What her ambition is we do not know, but with her steadfastness and sincerity, she will certainly attain her goal. To Bessie we wish the greatest of success in the future.

Irving Society; Community Editor of C. H. N. Echoes '26-27; Marcus Dry Home Economics Club '26-27.

RAYMOND WILLARD BAGWELL
"Boe"

Raleigh, North Carolina

"If it be a handsome gentleman and a true friend ye seek, ye have found him."

"Boe," like all the other Seniors, needs only to be known to be liked. His calm, easy going manner makes for him a winning personality. These excellent qualities, together with many more, make him a student of the highest type and a dependable friend. "Boe" is a good addition to the class of '27, and we wish him the best of success in the future.

Vice President Senior Class; Treasurer Junior Class; Stock Judging Team '26-27; Assistant Business Manager CHSITE.

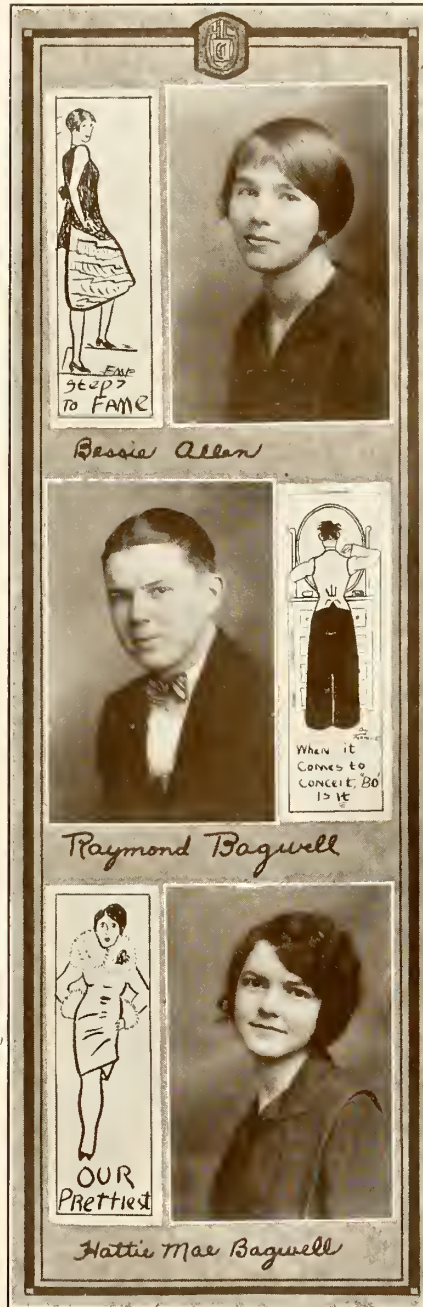

HATTIE MAE BAGWELL
"Hattie Mae"

Raleigh, North Carolina

*"Sober, quiet, patient, and demure;
A friend of whom you are always sure."*

Hattie Mae is quiet, reserved, and dignified and a true friend to those who know her well. She is an industrious student and discharges her high school duties with merit. What her ambition is probably but few of us know. We are sure that she has an ambition and are equally sure that with her sincerity she can attain her goal.

Vice President Sophomore Class; Vice President Junior Class; Vice President Marcus Dry Home Economics Club '26-27; Treasurer Senior Class '26-27.

Belvin Blalock

Emogene Baucum

Wilson Farrell

BELVIN NATHAN BLALOCK
"Belvin"

McCullers, North Carolina

"What I am, to that let me be true."

During the four years that Belvin has been with us, he has proved his true worth as a student and as a society worker. He has held many offices in both his society and in his classes. These have proved his sincerity and dependability for he has performed every duty with the greatest loyalty. Although Belvin leads a very busy life, he always finds time for his love affairs. In the years that he has been in school here, he has become very popular among the student body and the faculty. We do not know what Belvin intends to do in future life, but we know that with his sterling qualities he can but succeed.

EMOGENE BAUCOM
"Gene"

Cary, North Carolina

"Quiet and unobtrusive yet winsome all the while."

"Gene" has a quiet and winsome way, as she goes about her work, that holds you spellbound. When she is your friend, you may count on finding her one of the truest of all. She has always wished for an opportunity to develop her musical talent and has been able to see this wish materialize in spite of other demands for the future.

Lowell Society; Dramatic Club '26-27; Track Team '25.

FRANK WILSON FARRELL
"Woody"

Cary, North Carolina

It isn't so much what a fellow stands for as what he falls for."

It is not when one laughs that one is really happy. "Woody" is always happy. That same bright, cheerful disposition is ever present. It has made for him numerous friends, both among his classmates and the faculty. Four years of high school work together with many honors have proved his ability. Time will pass and success will crown his efforts, but when we look back into yesterdays spent on the Cary High School Campus we shall still see Wilson, the boy; and we can say as we do today—Our Friend.

MARY KATIE BLANCHARD
"Kitty"

Cary, North Carolina

"She has a natural wise sincerity,
A simple truthfulness."

Katie has shown her worth by the faithful discharge of every duty. She is quiet, honest, and studious, and never believes in shirking a duty because it may require extra work. Katie is kind, good-natured, and thoroughly equipped for all mirthful occasions. Her record here assures us that her future will be a success.

Scholarship Medal '26; Editor-in-Chief CHSITE '26-27; Marcus Dry Home Economics Club '26-27.

Katie Blanchard

Frank Fetner

Una Mae Davis

FRANK MONROE FETNER
"Runt"

Raleigh, North Carolina

"He's little, but he's wise;
He's a corker for his size."

Frank is very sincere in work as well as in play. If he says "yes" you can depend on him. Frank has artistic ability, and if current reports are true he is able to draw something or somebody besides caricatures. We don't know what his life work will be, but such a personality foretells success.

UNA MAE DAVIS
"Cutie"

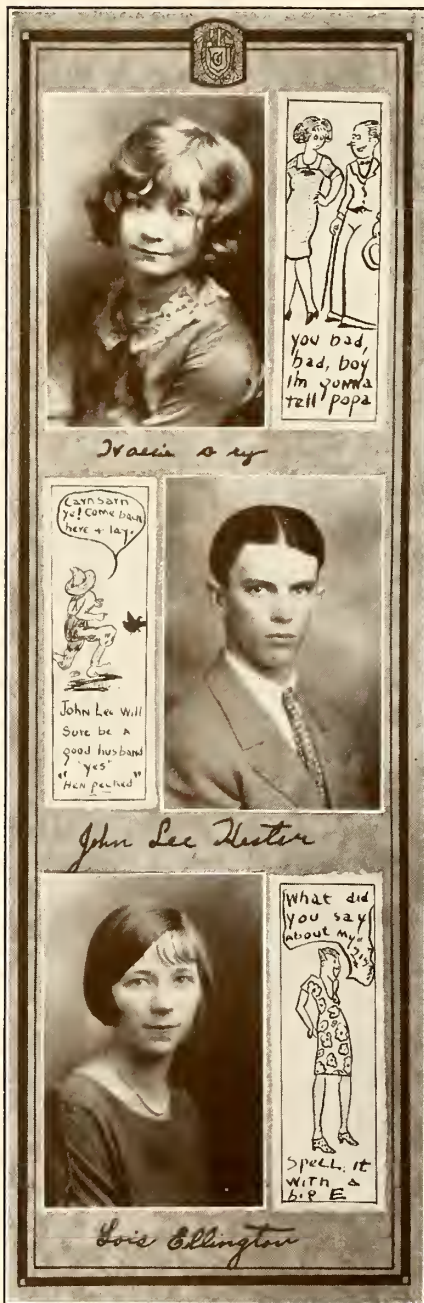

Varina, North Carolina

"Most fair of face,
Most winsome in her grace."

Una Mae is attractive, friendly and conscientious; she works at all tasks cheerfully and willingly. Her eager enthusiasm and cheerful disposition have made her a welcome addition to the class of '27.

Irving Society '26-27; Science Club '26-27; Girls' Glee Club '26-27; Commercial Class '26-27.

HALLIE VIRGINIA DRY
"Hallie"

Cary, North Carolina

"Fair dainty, and petite."

Hallie may be little, but she is large enough to possess a high degree of quality in sincerity, friendliness, unselfishness and dependability. She is very studious and makes high marks on all of her subjects, which is more than most of us are capable of doing. She possesses the rare combination of study and attractiveness. For her we predict a life of usefulness and joyous service.

Lowell Society; Vice President Society '26-27; Science Club '23-24-25-26; Campus News Editor C. H. S. Echoes '26-27; Society Editor CHSITE '26-27; Commencement Marshal '26.

JOHN LEE HESTER
"John Lee"

Neuse, North Carolina

*"Success is sure to be,
To one so faithful as he."*

"Johnnie" is a good-natured fellow who makes us feel good when we meet him. He has qualities which make him a man. We all feel that some day he will do a great deal of good in the world. As a student, debater, and active member of both class and society he stands among the first.

LOIS ROANNE ELLINGTON
"Lois"

Raleigh, North Carolina

"Dignity is the sweetness of womanhood."

Lois is dignified and reserved; but she is an all-round good sport. In the three years that she has been with us we have found no kinder friend than she. Her highest ambition is to be an art student, and we wish her much success in this work.

Irving Society; Girls' Glee Club '26-27; Girls' Reserve '25-26; Girls' Basketball Team '25-26.

ANNIE MCGEE HAYES
"Annie"

Cary, North Carolina

*"Her heart is like a garden fair,
Where many pleasant blossoms grow."*

Here's to "Annie" a jolly member of the class of '27. She is a true friend, a real pal, a good sport, and a star athlete. She is a good student. The height of her ambition is to be a physical training teacher, and she is working hard toward this goal. We believe she has a splendid future, and we expect to hear much of her achievements in the field of athletics.

ALEXANDER SAWYER HOUSTON
"Alex"

Raleigh, North Carolina

"Cheerfulness breeds Friendship."

"Alex" came from Raleigh to join our class in '24. Although he attends all of the dances in his home town, he has been a worthy addition to the class of '27. With his sunny disposition "Alex" has become very popular in many ways. He is almost unsurpassed in High School basketball playing. Some one said that "Alex" had more skill with a basketball than a monkey had with a peanut. He may have a girl somewhere—who knows? No matter what line he follows, we're counting on "Alex."

MILDRED LOUISE JONES
"Mildred"

Cary, North Carolina

*"Not too fast, not too slow,
Just the girl you like to know."*

Mildred's attitude is ever one of peace and contentment. A soft smile—just look her way and feel her calmness. And yet beneath this outward unemotional appearance lies a feeling of genuine interest, evident only to those who know her. Mildred is a girl whom you can trust and depend upon; she is ever ready to lend a helping hand. She is one of our most loyal workers in the Senior Class, and if she continues the record that she has made here we are certain that she will accomplish many worthwhile things in life.

Joyner Jackson

Wava Keith

Philip Jones

JOYNER JACKSON
"Whale"

Cary, North Carolina

"He never takes anything seriously."

Joyner has been with us since we came to high school. He has helped the school on the athletic field as well as helping others. He is one of those fellows who has the ability to mix work, play and social activities. He never has let his work interfere with his other activities. Some day we hope to see Joyner the leader of some orchestra. Joyner has been a good student, a great hand with the ladies, and a valuable man to our class. We send him forth from high school, with the united faith of the class of '27.

MARY WAVA KEITH "Wava"

Cary, North Carolina

"If I do vow friendship, I'll perform it to the last article."

Wava is one of those quiet, studious girls whom every one admires. She never neglects her work, is kind hearted, and is always willing to lend a helping hand. She makes it a point to say a kind word or nothing about those she meets. Here's wishing you luck, dear Wava.

PHILIP CARLTON JONES
"Philip"

Raleigh, North Carolina

"Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow you may die."

There is something about Philip that makes us all like him. He can make friends when others fail, and his friends are not all of the baser sex. In class Philip is a student; on the campus he is very popular, and on the dance floor he "turns 'em all green with envy." He is cordial, jovial, and energetic; he's an all-round good fellow. We feel sure he will succeed in whatever occupation he enters.

Dramatic Club '25-26-27; Science Club '25-26.

ADDIE MAE KENDALL
"Kendall"

Goldsboro, North Carolina

*"The gladness of her gladness and the sadness of her sadness,
Are nothing to the badness of her badness when she's bad."*

Not only is "Addie" game for anything, but she is good in everything. She is jolly and always your friend at work or at play. Her chief pastime is playing jokes.

Irving Society; Girls' Glee Club '26-27; Science Club '25-26; Girls' Reserve '24-25-26-27; Treasurer Girls' Reserve; Dramatic Club '26-27.

WILLIAM WALTON PLEASANTS
"Bill"

Cary, North Carolina

*"If you can't stick don't begin it,
Bill has won where work would win it."*

Bill is closely connected with all of the C. H. S. activities, and has grown along with the school, for we have had him from an "ABC" boy to a high school graduate. He has confidence in himself and is dependable at all times. We understand that he is to study dentistry and we are confident of his success.

Clay Society; Baseball Team '25-26; Commercial Class '26-27.

ELIZABETH PANSY MOORE
"Pat"

Cary, North Carolina

*"Rare compound of quality, noble and true,
With plenty of sense and good humor too."*

Pansy has been a member of our class since the Freshman days, and a loyal friend who sympathizes with one's joys and sorrows. If you want anything done well, call on her and you will get results. She has chosen the career of a trained nurse, so we are all wishing her much success in this field, and expecting great things from her in the future. To summarize her in two words is to call her "true blue."

PAUL LIVINGSTON SMITH
"Paul"

Morrisville, North Carolina

"Silence is golden."

Paul is another good student from Morrisville. Among the things he is famous for is his work in agriculture. He is one of Mr Meekins' star pupils in vocational work. Paul has those characteristics of steadiness, honesty and good disposition which lead to success in life. What more does any fellow need?

Stock Judging Team '25-26; Stock Judging Team '26-27.

RACHAEL CLAREENE MURRAY
"Midget"

Apex, North Carolina

"She is a winsome wee thing."

"Midget" may be small in stature and in avoirdupois, but her ambition and determination are by no means little. Books are her greatest pleasures. Some day, perhaps, she will make a splendid librarian. The most valuable things are sometimes found in the smallest packages.

WILLIAM DEBURNIA SMITH
"Bill"

Cary, North Carolina

"Glee Club is his study,
His singing is divine;
And some day in the halls of fame
His name—and eyes—will shine."

As a member of the Boys' Glee Club for the past two years "Bill" has had a chance to develop and exhibit his excellent talent as a vocal soloist. Besides being a leading member of the Boys' Glee Club, "Bill" is an excellent student and athlete. He has many friends in Cary and is liked by all. Our expectations of "Bill" are indeed high; for we know that he can succeed in whatever course he takes in life.

HAZEL FRANCES REAMS
"Squeaky"

Morrisville, North Carolina

"Not only to know her is to love her, but the more you know her, the more you will love her."

In Hazel we find a personality that is sure to make and hold for her a host of friends where'er she may go. Serious? Yes, when the occasion demands it. Ready for a good time? Yes! Studious? Yes, if need be. Always ready to help? Yes. What more could one wish to have than the combination of these qualities, which make for the best kind of a friend.

WILLIAM WALTER STEVENS
"Boss"

Raleigh, North Carolina

"If talking will do it he'll win."

Walter has been with us during the four years of our high school career and has shown himself to be a good sport. He is a good student and worker. He may not make the highest grades on his subjects, but he makes enough to pass his work. Few desire to do more than this. Walter is jovial and optimistic, and does not find many things that are worth worrying over. He has won many honors in the department of agriculture, and we are counting on him to win many more in future life.

PANSY MAE ROGERS
"Baby"

Cary, North Carolina

*"A soul of joy,
A heart of song."*

Pansy has been with us through our four years of high school life, and in all our responsibilities and undertakings she has shown the true spirit of sportsmanship. She believes in preparing her school work, but she also believes in taking an active part in social activities. When she decides to do a thing no power on earth can stop her. She is jovial and good-natured; a sincere friend of all who know and understand her disposition. Pansy, we predict great success for you in the business world.

ELIZABETH WHITE SMITH

"Lib"

McCullers, North Carolina

"Good temper, like a sunny day, sheds its brightness over everything."

"Lib." is quiet, reserved, sincere, and a true friend and companion. She is a conscientious student and a faithful society worker. Although she has only been with us a year, she has made many friends among both local and dormitory students. "Lib" is always ready with some kind word and a helpful deed. Lucky will be the man who persuades her to share her life with him.

Irving Society '26-27; President Society '27.

ELIZABETH DELE WATSON

"Bessie"

Aurora, North Carolina

"Keep your face to the sunshine, and behind you the shadows will fall."

If you are looking for a good all-round girl, here she is. "Bessie" came to us from Aurora in her Sophomore year, and has won many friends here by her genial disposition and friendly manner. She is a willing, capable, dependable and an energetic worker. She is a fine, true type of girlhood and one of our most conscientious Seniors. Whatever "Bessie" decides to do we know that she will make a success of it.

Irving Society; Vice President '26-27; Dramatic Club '26-27.

RICHARD LAVERNE ELLINGTON

"Laverne"

Cary, North Carolina

"When you have nothing to say, keep quiet."

Laverne does not believe in studying very much, and probably does not make as high marks as some of us do, but few of us can excel him in the field of athletics. He is quiet and reserved and never speaks unless he has something worth while to say. By his polite and courteous manners he has won the lasting friendship of many of his classmates and teachers.

NUMA FLETCHER TURNER, JR.
"Fletch"

Raleigh, North Carolina

*"With the boys he's a friend-maker,
With the girls he's a heart-breaker."*

The little knee-pants boy of '24 has shown rare spirit and ability in all forms of athletics. Besides developing a strong body, Fletcher has shown a great desire to acquire literary knowledge. Although he is indifferent at times, Fletcher's friends realize that his friendship is worth cultivating. He will tell you that gentlemen prefer blondes. Fletcher, we are interested in your future life, and hope that you'll find happiness.

History of Class '27

WE of the Class of '27 know well the history of our high school career. The successes, failures, joys, and sorrows are imprinted on the minds of each one of our number.

No doubt our minds will often revert to the scenes and events of our school life at our Alma Mater during the past four years. However as we go out from here into different environments, we wish to take with us a record so that others may really know the paths our class have trod; hence we place before you the story in four volumes.

On the first you see engraved an anchor, emblem of hope; for our hopes and aspirations were high, when in the fall of '23 we met as a group of Freshmen and organized, with Mildred Jones as our president, and with Miss Thornton as our able adviser. Certainly we needed a competent guide to point out the unknown pathway before us.

Volume II bears a heart imbedded in its cover, telling of the love which bound us together. Since working toward the same goal we learned to go hand in hand with sympathy and understanding. We had caught the high school spirit and prided ourselves on reaching this second step—the Sophomore year. Again we needed willing helpers. For this we chose Maxwell Garner as president and Mr. Dalton as our Faculty adviser.

Volume III carries a cross signifying the faith and courage gained along the way. As we had gained confidence, we now felt that we would endure to the end and be prepared to take up more difficult tasks. Belvin Blalock was selected President and Miss Harville director. This mile was not so hard, for in the distance was a glimpse of our Senior year.

On the last volume we display a palm-emblem of triumph and victory, and although some of our original band have not followed us on to the end, we stand thirty-three in number. We realized that the long-looked-for goal was nearby, so Belvin Blalock, having shown his ability as leader in our Junior year, was again chosen counselor.

It seems impossible that this trying part of the journey could have been overcome without the faithfulness and untiring efforts of Mr. Raper, our Faculty adviser. Closing this last volume, we the class of '27 will our love and promise to ever be true to our dear Alma Mater.

EMOGENE BAUCOM, Historian.

Class Prophecy

AFTER graduating in law and practicing that profession a few years, I gave it up to lecture for a well-known traveling Chautauqua. Since I have been with this Chautauqua, I have traveled many of the states; and in my travels I have met or read some interesting articles about each member of the class of '27. From time to time I have written something about them in my little diary, which I call "The Diary of the Class of '27." Who would have thought that the class of '27 would have made its mark in the world so early?

My diary was completed the other night when I spent the night with Philip Jones, a prosperous farmer, living near Cary, North Carolina. I pulled it from my pocket and gave it to Philip and this is what he read aloud to Mrs. Jones and family:

July 21, 1934—Today I read an interesting article in the American Magazine by a well-known writer, Miss Clareene Murray of Jackson, Mississippi, about B. N. Blalock, a well-known lawyer of Philadelphia, and his world famous "Scrapbook."

October 23, 1934—Today I was surprised at this head-line which was written across the sport sheet of the New York World: "Yale's victory over Princeton was due to the shrewd coaching of Coach Irony Fletcher Turner."

October 26, 1934—Today I read the following advertisement in the Progressive Farmer: "Pure-bred White Leghorns for sale; address Manager Walter Stevens, Templeton Poultry Farm, Cary, North Carolina."

November 5, 1934—In Dayton, Ky., I visited Johnnie Lee Hester's Poultry Farm. Johnnie Lee's birds won first prize at the Kentucky State Fair.

November 15, 1934—While strolling down Main street in Goldsboro, N. C., I met Foye Hodge in front of her beauty parlor. I went into the beauty parlor and found Lois Ellington getting a permanent wave.

November 25, 1934—Today as I came out of the Portage Hotel in Akron, Ohio, I met Bessie Allen and Bessie Watson. They invited me around to look over their hat shop at 341 East Market Street. They informed me that Mildred Jones was private secretary of the Goodrich Rubber Company.

December 1, 1934—I went to the Keith-Alabee Theater in Pittsburg, Pa., this evening and was greatly surprised when William Smith walked out on the stage and sang "Fairy Land." The music of the evening was furnished by the Jackson Orchestra, Joyner Jackson director.

December 10, 1934—Today when I stepped off the train in Wheeling, W. Va., I met Miss Hallie Dry, who was in Wheeling on business for the North Carolina State Board of Education. She told me that she was planning to spend the Christmas holidays with Hazel Reams, who is now the wife of a prominent lawyer of Columbia, S. C.

December 15, 1934—As I was crossing the street in Richmond, Va., this morning, I met William Pleasants, owner of the largest drug store in Richmond. As we were standing there talking, a large truck came by, with the name Ellington Wholesale House on the side of it. William told me that Laverne Ellington was the owner of a large wholesale house in town.

Last Will and Testament

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA }
 COUNTY OF WAKE } Cary High School
 CITY OF CARY }

WE, the class of '27, have, after many hardships, joys, and sorrows, reached the position of Seniors. We feel that we are nearer our journey's end and declare this to be our last will and testament.

ITEM I. We bequeath to the Cary High School our thanks, and our loyalty and devotion in the future, for what she has done for us.

ITEM II. To our mothers and fathers we will our fondest love and deepest appreciation for the sacrifices they have made in making it possible for us to attend school.

ITEM III. To Mr. Dry, a vote of thanks for leading us successfully through high school.

ITEM IV. 1. Let it be known to all that we, the class of 1927, are to be excluded from this spot known as Cary High School campus; and we leave to the Juniors a hope that they will have four times as many privileges as we have had.

2. We will our sympathy and love to the Sophomores.

3. To the Freshmen, we will a hope that by the time they are Seniors their task will be easier.

ITEM V. To the faculty—

1. To Mr. Roller: A Physics class that will be prepared for a test any time.

2. To Miss King: A pair of knucks so she will not bruise her fist when she knocks on the girls' doors in the dormitory.

3. To Mrs. Daniels: An entire History IV Class that will do satisfactory work in every way. Also Philip Jones's Note Book.

4. To Miss Burgess: A large number of Seniors who will go out for debates.

5. To Miss York: A group of girls who will not talk too much on class and will not take food from the cooking laboratory.

6. To Miss Smith: Students that will be quiet in chapel and sing when asked to.

7. To Miss Pasmore: Girls who will not talk and laugh in the library and students who will not study other lessons on her classes.

8. To Mr. Meekins: Coöperation from the student body in beautifying the campus.

9. To Miss Jones: A better girls' basketball team.

10. To Miss Gray: An extra music studio to use when the assistant music teacher comes, in order that she may not disturb study hall.

11. To Mr. Raper: A student body that will pay CHSITE expenses after being asked once.

12. To Mr. Smith: A 1927 Model Ford.

13. To Miss Nichols: A soft pillow to lay her head on to keep the students in the study hall from knowing she has just been to sleep.

ITEM VI. To Mrs. Dry and Mrs. Roller: The boarding students bequeath their fondest love and appreciation for the "eats" they have enjoyed.

ITEM VII. Some members of the Class wish to be remembered by individuals by willing them something.

1. Frances Sorrell is to receive Hallie Dry's curls and dimples.

2. Belvin Blalock's debating ability is to go to Jack Burruss.

3. Marie Murray is to receive Mildred Jones' attractiveness.

4. Addie Mae Kendall wills her cuteness to Mary Hudson House.

5. Wilson Farrell's place in the hall at lunch is left to Paul Tillman.

6. Alex Houston's place on the basketball team is to go to Percy Wilson.

7. Fletcher Turner leaves "Hop" Horton the privilege of taking the roll.

8. Frank Fetner leaves his heart with Ruth Cathey for keeps.
9. Wava Keith gives her place as the most studious to Anton Phillips.
10. Philip Jones's big mouth is to go to Lester Newell.
11. William Pleasants will leave to his brother, Robert, the job of ringing the bell, provided the rope is made longer.
12. Wilson Fonville will receive William Smith's melodious voice.
13. Una Mae Davis's ability to flirt is to go to Lesbia Greene.
14. Annie Hayes wills her place on the basketball team to Edna Truitt.
15. Clareene Murray leaves her lips to Margaret Winston.
16. Jessie Mae Byrd will receive Hazel Reams's beauty.
17. Katie Blanchard wills her place as Editor-in-Chief of the Annual to Flora Williams.

ITEM VIII. We as executors of this last will and testament, hereby nominate and appoint Marie Murray and Dwight Eatman as leaders of the Junior Class to carry out directions given therein.

In witness we hereunto subscribe our hands and seal on this, the twenty-second day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven.

Class Poem

WE'VE had our toils, dreams and fears.
Hardships we have had.
We've worked through rain, smiles, and tears;
Rewards for which we're glad.
These four long years have passed away;
Our high school days are done.
We graduate this golden day;
The goal we've sought is won.

Behind us are our high school days,
Ahead of us are toil and strife;
And so may we do always
The things that count in life.
And though we've reached the longed for goal,
May others now be set.
Still on! with all our heart and soul
Through life new honors to get.

ELIZABETH SMITH.

MISS YORK, Instructor

THE Home Economics course is organized to cover two years' work and is designed for the eighth and ninth grade students. The first year is devoted to food, textiles and clothing; the second to dietetics, textiles and clothing, home nursing, house planning and interior decoration.

This year a club has been organized for the students who have had two years of training. The organization is called the Marcus Dry Home Economics Club in honor of Mr. Dry, our faithful supporter and friend.

Agriculture Department

THE men and women upon the farms stand for what is fundamentally best and most needed in our American life. Upon the development of country life rests ultimately our ability, by methods of farming requiring the highest intelligence to feed and clothe the hungry nations; to supply the city with fresh blood, clean bodies and clear brains that can endure the terrific strain of modern life. We need the development of men in the open country who will be in the future as in the past the stay and strength of the nation in time of war and its guiding and controlling spirit in time of peace.

OUR motto in the gymnastic department of Cary High School is "Exercise the body as well as the mind, for without the body the mind does not function."

Our gymnasium is one of the best equipped high school gymnasiums in the State of North Carolina, and it is being improved each day.

All forms of physical exercise are given, including free gymnastics, marching, running, mat work, track, folk dancing, basketball, baseball and apparatus work. The Gymnastic Exhibition given at commencement time is enjoyed by all.

The Boys' Glee Club

THE Boys' Glee Club was organized September 23, 1927, under the supervision of Miss Smith, our music director. We had a very successful year, the students thoroughly coöperating with Miss Smith. Our meetings were held every Tuesday night promptly at seven o'clock.

A Romantic Musical Comedy was staged by the girls' and boys' glee club jointly. This play proved to be a big success. We made a large sum of money on this play and bought an entirely new set of scenery for the stage.

On the whole we had a very progressive year and the spirit shown by the members and the entire student body was excellent.

The officers of the Boys' Glee Club of 1926-27 were as follows:

Football

THE Cary High School football eleven, led by Captain Fetner, made one of the best records in football that has been made during the history of the school. As for the members of the team, only three letter men from last year's eleven returned for the season '26. But under the supervision of Coach Smith and with the untiring efforts of Captain Fetner, the rest of the eleven with the new material was soon made into a machine. This fact was proved in the year's record.

Girls' Basketball Team

BASKETBALL has proved to be one of the most popular sports at Cary High School. During the term of 1926-27, the interest in basketball has been renewed with much enthusiasm under the direction of Miss Jones. The work of Captain Annie Hayes and Flora Williams was outstanding. We regret the loss of several of our players, but will try to uphold their standards.

Left to Right (front): Fetner, Guard; Ellington, Center; Houston, Captain and Forward; Turner, Forward; Horton, Guard.

Middle: Ball, Guard; Stevens, Guard.

Back: Farrell, Forward; Murdock, Guard; Coach Smith; Pleasants, Forward.

Boys' Basketball Team

WHEN you see our Captain Houston play and the unselfish spirit of coöperation that has characterized our team, you may well understand why this year's quintette enjoys such an enviable record. The scores from the various games during the season not only show that we have won a majority but that we have a well organized team.

BASEBALL CANDIDATES FOR 1927

The students of Cary High School are encouraged by high hopes for an excellent baseball team this year. Coach Smith expects to put out an excellent team for the coming season.

CANDIDATES FOR TRACK

The students are expecting a winning track team this year. Having two men back from last year, Coach Smith and the students are expecting to uphold Cary's record of having a winning track team.

Class Prophecy

December 20, 1934—I learned from Elizabeth Smith, the wife of a well known physician of Danville, Va., that Pansy Rogers was happily married to one of the leading ministers of Knoxville, Tenn.

January 5, 1935—While I was in Denver, Colorado, I met an old friend, Annie Hayes, who is directing gymnastics and coaching athletics in the Colorado College for women. Annie deserves such a position. She was an excellent athlete in high school.

January 21, 1935—I was up to the office of the St. Louis Daily News today on a business errand and was glad to learn that Katie Blanchard was the editor of the society page of the paper.

February 11, 1935—I met Addie Mae Kendall in Wilmington, N. C., and she told me that she was teaching Home Economics in the New Hanover High School. Addie Mae showed me a letter she had from Pansy Moore who is head nurse at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

February 29, 1935—Wilson Farrell is chief of police of Miles City, Montana. Wilson told me that only a few days ago one of his men arrested a lady for speeding. To his surprise he learned that the lady before her marriage was Miss Una Mae Davis. She and her husband were traveling through Montana on their honeymoon.

March 8, 1935—I congratulated Frank Fetner who is an interior decorator in Miami, Florida. He told me he was happily married and living in a little white house at the end of "Honeymoon Lane."

March 8, 1935—Today when I went down to the harbor in New York City I met Wava Keith, who sells tickets for the White Star Line. Wava told me that she had just sold several tickets to Hattie Mae Bagwell who was directing a class of University students abroad.

April 10, 1936—Who should the fine looking gentleman that I sat by in a theater in Iowa City, Iowa, be other than Raymond Bagwell, a professor of agriculture in the University of Iowa. I learned from Raymond that Paul Smith was teaching agriculture in the University of Washington.

April 27, 1936—When walking down Pennsylvania Avenue, in Washington, D. C., I read this sign on a window; "Miss Baucom's Studio." I dropped in to have a little chat with Emogene, who is now a successful violin teacher.

May 18, 1936—Today I spent a few minutes with Alex Houston in his studio in San Pedro, California. Alex is famous as a dancing master.

Philip had now finished reading my Diary, and as he handed it to me he said, "I wish I could live again those happy days of '27. If old age could only tell, if youth but knew?" As I took the Diary from Philip and put it in my pocket I tried to cheer him up with these words: "Youth with its romance and the love of life, adventure glowing in the setting sun, going—changing—moving. The lure of mystic dreams—endless plains and golden days to come. Going somewhere—going happily. Such is life, such is life."

BUILDERS DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to interpret the ideas of the Staff and create in material form their vision.

From the art work and engravings to the finished book, this volume is the result of organized coöperation with the Staff.

Such able coöperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

To those Staffs desiring complete coöperation from art work and engravings to the finished book, we offer unexcelled service. Complete service means undivided responsibility as to the result—one organization to correspond and talk with—one trained director to merge the many ingredients into the finished product.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.
